

Conditions of Carriage

- Please signal to the driver your intention to board an oncoming bus. Passengers are to board or alight from the vehicle at authorised bus stops only. No passenger shall attempt to board or alight from a moving vehicle.
- Fares are permitted on the vehicles but must be stored securely and must be clear of the aisles.
- All passengers are to pay the full fare or present an authorised concession ticket prior to boarding the vehicle.
- Passengers must retain their ticket for the length of their journey.
- The operator has the right to refuse to carry any person, adult or minor or to seek to remove or remove from the vehicle any passenger who is intoxicated, drugged, dirty or behaving in a manner which is dangerous or offensive to other passengers, or who refuses to obey a reasonable request made by an Operator under these circumstances.
- No person shall threaten with violence or abuse or willfully assault any passenger or operator.
- No passenger shall consume food or drink in any vehicle, spit, nor deface or damage either the vehicle or street furniture.
- No operator or passenger shall smoke any substance on any vehicle at any time.
- Any child travelling free of charge or on a child fare shall not occupy a seat whilst other adult passengers are standing and when requested by an Operator will vacate any seat to allow a standing adult passenger to be seated.
- No animals other than a properly certified guide dog (or guide dog under training) shall accompany any passenger on the vehicle.
- Neither the Company or the Regional Council accept any responsibility for any parcels, packages, luggage or other goods placed or left in any vehicle.
- Any incidents must be reported promptly (within 24 hours) to either the Operator or the Regional Council.

Attractions

Whangarei Museum and Kiwi House

Three venues in one!
• Kiwi House – see the resident kiwi foraging for food as he would in the wild
• Whangarei Museum – home to nationally significant Taonga (Maori treasure) and early settler displays
• The Clarke Homestead – built in 1886 this original homestead is a museum in itself

Bring a picnic and take in the beautiful grounds.

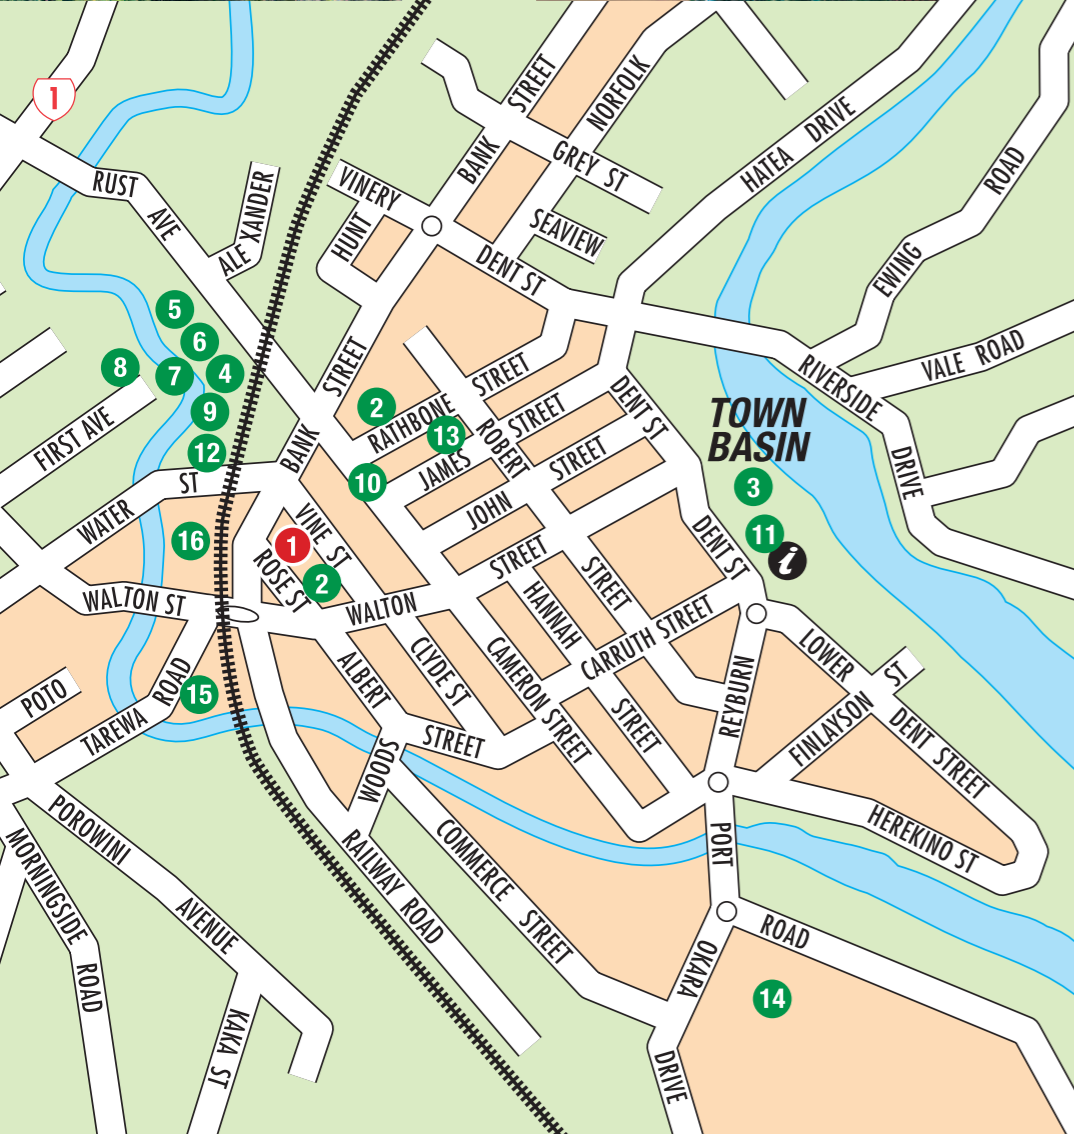

Getting there

Catch the Maunu service (Route 6) from the central city Rose St Terminus and ask the driver to drop you at the Whangarei Museum.

Shopping

Central Business District

Great food, coffee and shopping!

Growers Market

Fresh quality local produce every Saturday morning. Buses arrive at Rose Street Terminus from 8.00am (markets run until 11.00am).

Getting there

Catch any CityLink bus travelling towards the city centre and hop off at the Rose St terminus. Refer to the City Centre map on this timetable for locations.

Scenic

Whangarei Falls

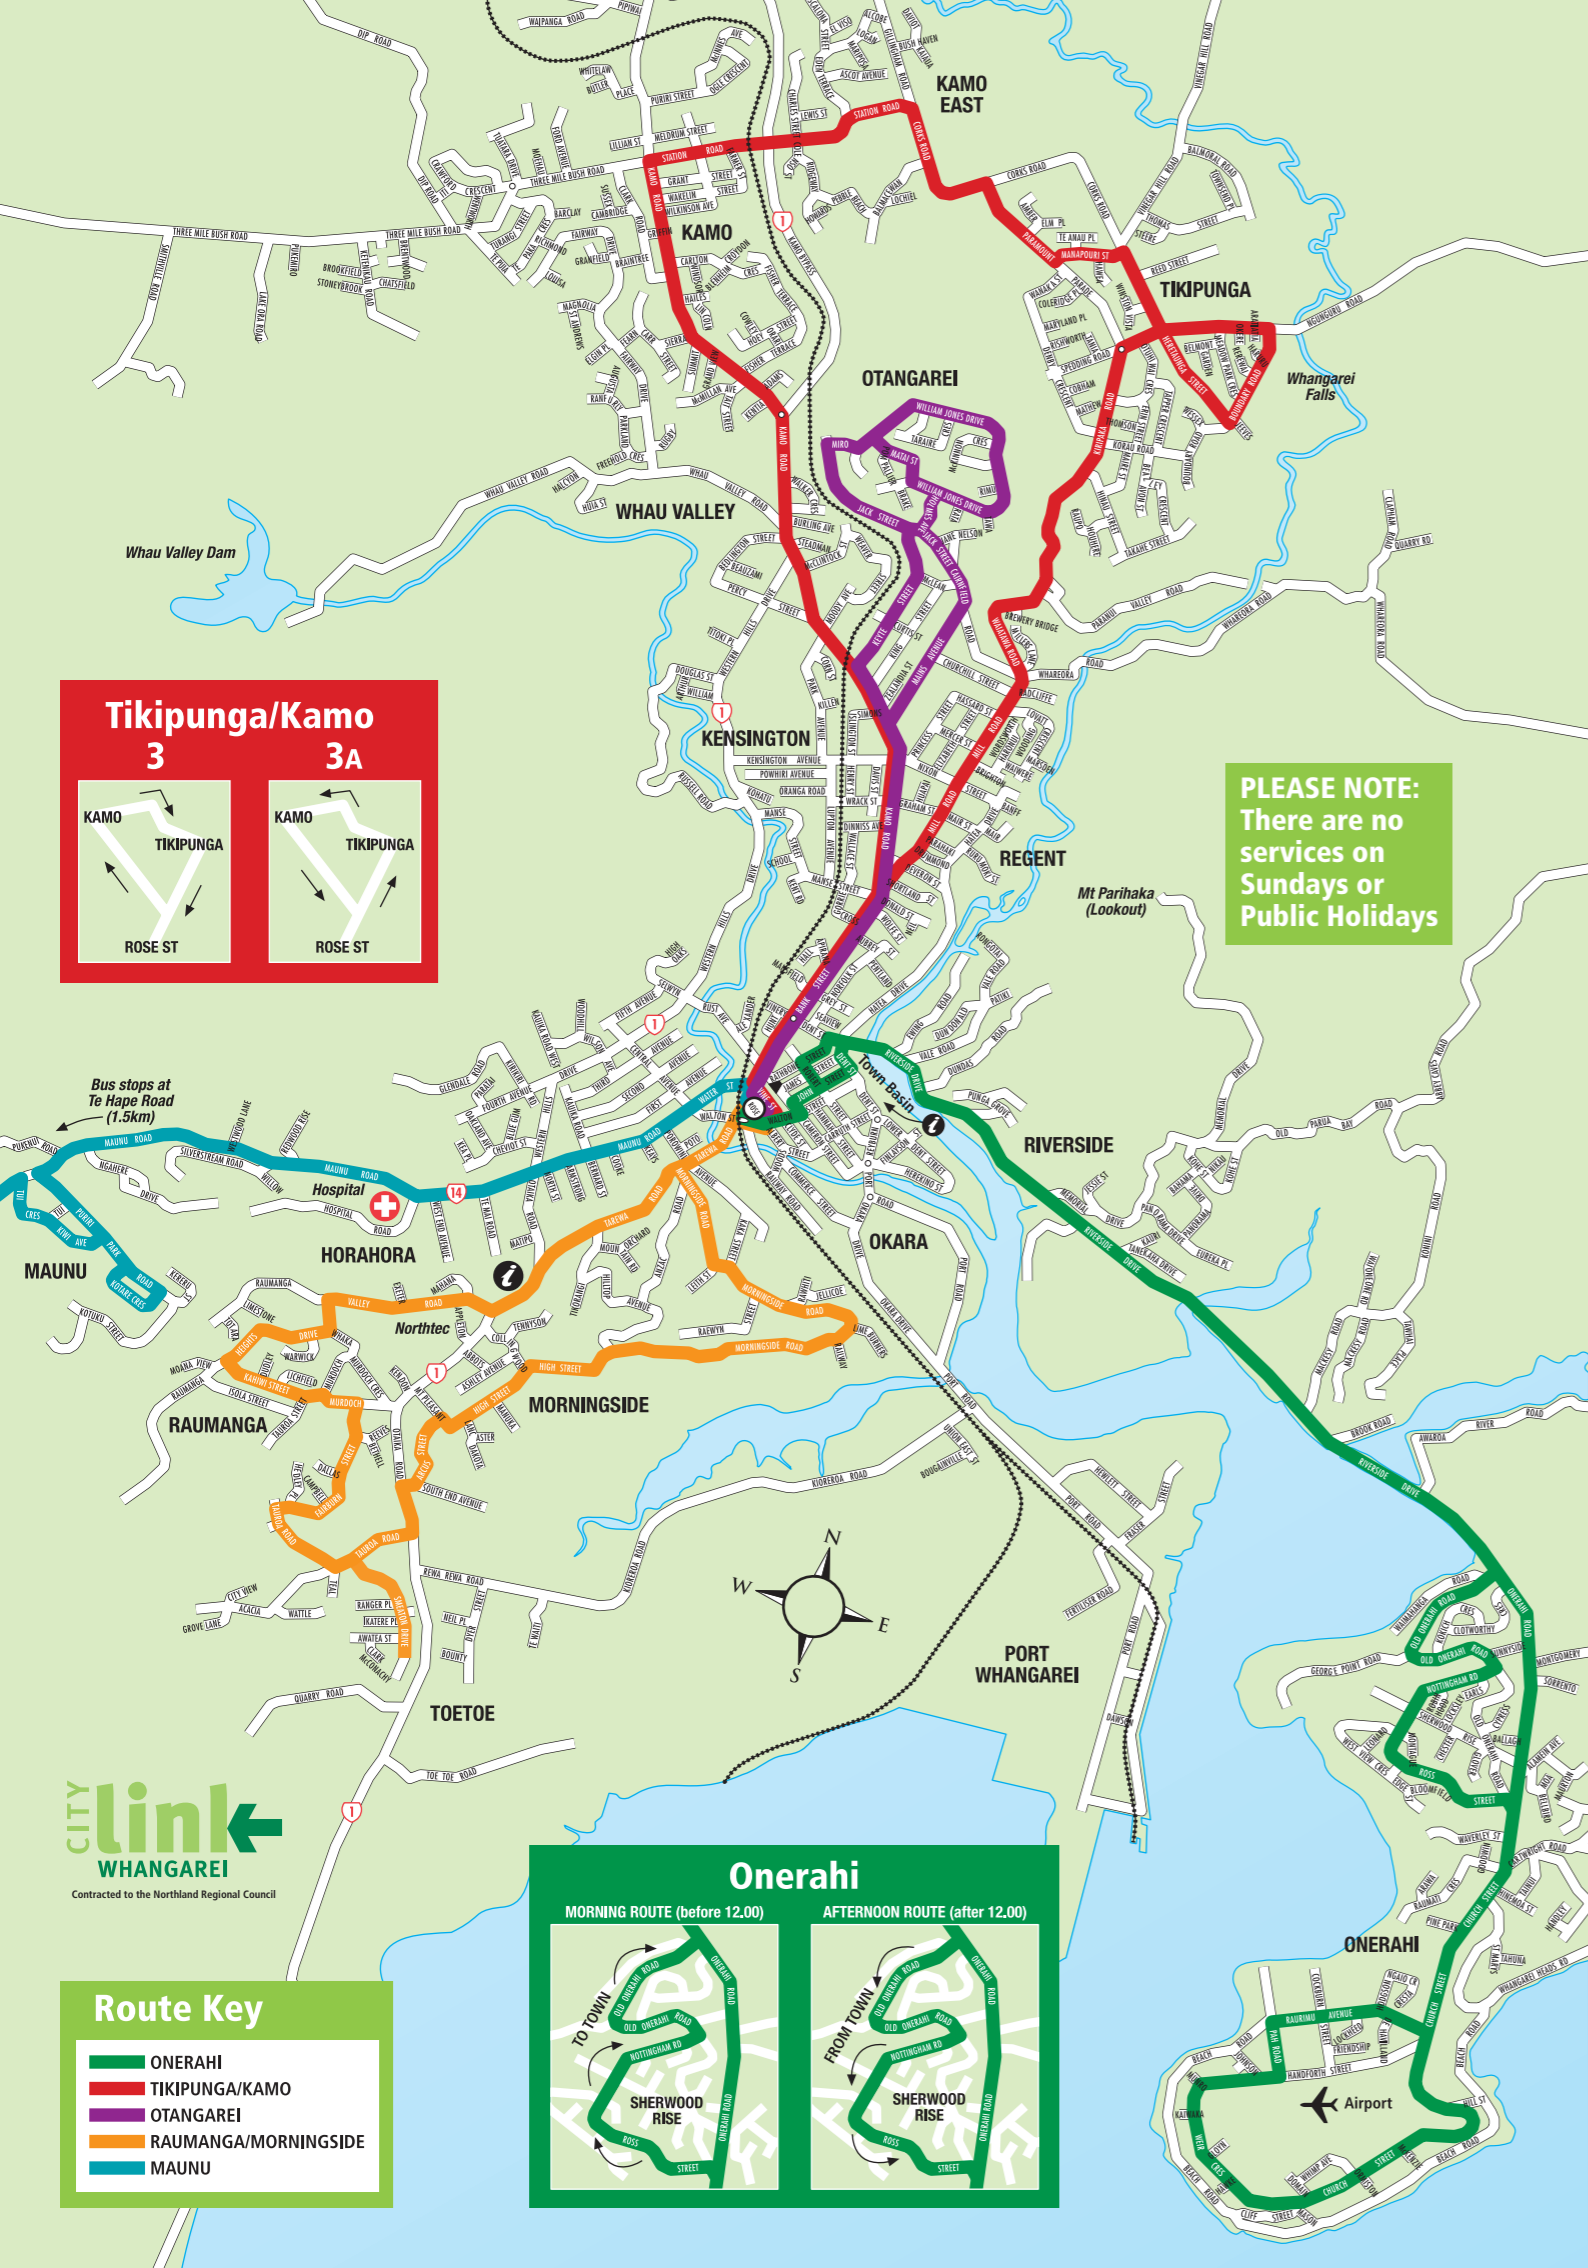

Visit New Zealand's most photographed waterfall.

Picturesque bush surrounds and a guaranteed 365 days per flow makes it a visitor favourite.

Getting there

Catch a bus up to the falls and take the delightful walkway following the Hatea River through Aft Reed Memorial Park and back to the Town Basin – a walk which takes approximately 1.5 hours.

Catch the Tikipunga/Kamo service (Route 3) or the Kamo/Tikipunga (Route 3A) and ask the driver to drop you at the Whangarei Falls.
